

Hear oh Israel, Jacob open Your eyes to Your rock, Your Lord and savior, Who'll redeem you with might

See the nations rage against Him, they don't want to recognize that JeHoWaH is alive, the sovereign judge of wrong and right

Come hómo to Your land, Elohím has a plan that He'll bring to fulfillment before the eyes of all men

He will exált You, give You práise and honor ín place of shame, péace in place of terror, if You just trúst Him and turn from Your own ways that keep you bound and separate from Him, Your light that rises upon You, so get úp and take your stand

God will póor out His Spirit of grace and súpplication show mercy tó You for His náme's sake, as promised to Your nation

You shall knów Him as He is, there'll be no need anymore, to teach ányone about Him, Your prophets wíll keep still in awe

When You will sée the wounds between His hands and will recognize, that is is Yóur God Who sént the One Who cáme to give You life

You will look on Him Who was pierced on behalf of Your sin, but rose from thé dead, is alive to receive Yóu and make You clean

Who'll write God's law on Your hearts, lead You in Hís New Covenant, oh how You'll móurn for Him as Yóu'll rea'lize, Yeshúa is His name!

He's the rúler coming from Yóur midst, the sacrificéd lamb of God, who took up Yóur pain, bore Your suffering, healed You ín humble love.

Who has believed this message, to whom was revealed God's wisdom, Who's plan was yet to let His sálvation reach to all nations

Many péoples will be joint to Him on this coming day, when He'll cóme back in glory, to judge the earth and bring aid.

He'll live among You, inherit Juda, and choose again Jerusalem make it the praise of the earth, the glorious cénter of His kingdóm.

But already He's alive and present, inviting You to believe in His salvation, receive the Holy Spirit, Who will lead You in all truth, bé Your comforter living within The first share of Your inheritance God prepared for His children

Yeshua in You, You in Him, as He is in the Father, uniting us with Him forever, oh, there is no other

No one who equals You, Who is worthy to receive praise, honor, glory, power, strength, dominion, worship and thanks

Blessed is Hé Who is coming in Adonái's most high name the beloved Son of God and Man worthy to reign

For all times with His chosen ones, obeying His word His bride ready for the wedding banquet God has prepared on His Holy Hill for all who love Him and overcame remained faithful in life's trials because they knew what they've gained as the redeemer of this world suffered déad for their sake to reconcile them to God, not by their works but by faith

Accept the perfect off'ring HE prepared to reverse the fall to clothe your nakedness like Adam's, since fig-leaves don't do at all!

Like the ram died in place on Isaak, the Messiah died for You Abr'ham was ready to give his son, but God really did so

Nothing will ever make You worthy to enter His heavenly light but Yeshúa Who brought real peace, gave us fullness of life

You will see the king in His glory, righteous and true, seated on David's throne, praise God, He comes home to You!

Israel, beloved, listen to the Jéw Yéshua Who like Josef may look like a gentile, but is your brother, saving you!

He'll not come back till His only full fleshly brother comes to Him, too
A church repéttant of its long fáilure says: We're sorry! We need You!
