

A song of a kingdom to come (G)

Em C G D
I sing a song of a kingdom to come
I sing a song of redemption,

I sing a song that is silently starting
I sing a song that will break forth

G D Em C
I sing a song of a heavenly reality that are already tasting those who have found Him

I sing a song about something real as it can be.
Of a glory revealed in the light of the king

I sing a song of a heavenly rain pouring down.
I sing a song full of brokenness, tears and hope still

Em C G D
I sing a song that's been hidden inside us too long of peace, restoration and joy.

a song of love (that's) full of brokenness tears and hope still never to cease :when You come: |: Yeshua You'll come! :|

G D Em C
that is waiting to come down for everyone to see
Who will come |: Yeshua You'll come! :|

Of a hope that is closer than we'd ever believe.
when You come.

Of Eden restored, coming home, beeing found for You come! |: Yeshua You'll come! :|

Yeshua (C)

The sun goes down (G>)

G C G D G
The sun goes down over the world as we know it but don't worry something better is gonna come not a system of man but the kingdom of god not of a false one but Jahweh the creator of all
Many will see His arm outstretched, fear and start trusting Him many will open their hearts and be eternally changed many will ask who's Yeshua, who's this glorious king this most humbled loving servant roaring like a lion
As the darkness grows darker the true light is revealed man has to make a decision resist lie and deceit
The ones God chose from the start will recognize His voice like sheep they'll follow their shepherd enter into a new world
Reborn as children of God washed by Messiah's blood Undeservingly made righteous just because of love
His bride called out of this world's futility and lure Refined by fire to be like Him, holy and pure
No threat of this life can harm us there's nothing to fear whatever may come our home is in heaven, not here
By His grace we're transformed we're overcoming sin our life is no longer ours but we belong to Him
Glory to God in the highest Who is going to come to bring judgement and righteousness through His dear Son
The King of Israel Who'll have His inheritance Who'll take the reign on this earth, bring restoration and peace
God is love, He is mercy, but the time has to come when He will make a cut and stop the rage of satan
All those who stubbornly resist the love of His Son will see the fruit of their choice unless they turn and come home
Thank You Jeshua, Messiah, the king of the Jews Who faithfully saves, restores and brings all things to a close
How many times did He want to gather Your children Jerusalem, but You'll see Him pierced (trough) and be willing

The lord of this world is coming to an end (C) (Melodie wie "The sun goes down")

1) I am God, I'm forever, I'm the ruler of all, I am alive and I'm soon gonna come Satan 's raging at last, his dillusions will fail when I'm revealed and will restore all things.
Ev'rything will be turned 'round, a brand new world will come full of joy, peace, love and righteousness
The old order of things will no longer exist, but Messiah in his Kingdom will reign
Shout for joy all God's people your redemption is near |: the lord of this world is coming to an end:|

2) Babylon 's filling the earth now like never before all nations drink from the great harlot's cup.
The pride of life is abounding, sin 's reaching its fullness Spirit, convict us of whoring and greed.
For far too long we've rejected our Redeemer and God oh let us turn 'round and accept His grace in humble surrender embrace the love of our King the Lamb and Lion Who 's roaring in power.
Seek His face, church, endure, be courageous and strong |: the lord of this world is coming to an end:|
See Babylon is falling never to rise again |: the lord of this world is coming to an end:|
